This Description of the Football Game

WRITTEN BY THE "FUNNY" REPORTER.

But From the Standpoint of the Lay Brethren, It is Amusing.

The football game at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon was particularly uninteresting. Nobody was killed and it is not even certain yet that any one was maimed for life, although a few of the young men who took part have their lives and reputations hanging in the balance today.

The Athletic club was defeated, the score standing 4 to 0, but the Y. M. C. A. will have a decrease in membership if there is not a change for the better in about four physical conditions soon.

The weather was bad and the ground slippery. The crowd was a sorry one and there was plenty of mud to drag the opposition colors in.

The T. A. A. split the air with their yells every few minutes, but the Y. M. C. A. kept still and played ball and won the game.

Gugel was the star with the Y. M. C. A. team. Baker, Evans and Cain seemed to be the leading men, while Tipton was a sort of a heavy villain. Whenever the frenzied foes couldn't find anything else to fight on they fell on Tipton who seemed to be a very good cushion. Darling did the best work for the Athletics, and Curry and Rice were also good.

There was no score at the end of the first half and very few people hurt. In the first tackle Scotty Cain accepted a kick near his left eye which laid the skin open. Dr. Howard was there with his wise look and court plaster and stuck it together, and Scotty went on, "brave fellow what he was" as one of the girls in the stand said.

Most of the players chewed gum, which is always better than the rag.

Scotty played all right for a short time until he got into it again and got the plaster rubbed off and a few bay windows built onto the cut. This called for surgery and nerve and Scotty laid his manly form on the cold and while the doctor put a couple of stitches in the place. That was the only time Scotty could be docked for.

In the latter half somebody put his cold feet against Gugel's stomach and he played an excellent double for several minutes while the game waited.

During the wait between the halves Baker concluded he was receiving attention enough, so he lay down and had a little faint of his own. In the absence of a cot he was compelled to recline on the bosom of Mother Earth, and the four policemen present—they were there to keep order; policemen don't care anything about football—were kept busy keeping the crowd back and bringing chunks of air over from the next vacant lot. Everyone remembers how hot and stuffy it was in the tightly fenced ball park yesterday. Dr. Howard also added to the occasion with his bright unfailing wit in answering questions. Baker was able to get up pretty soon, but he didn't play in the second half.

Evans and Taylor were used up some, and Barnes was hurt a little. He was unconscious for several hours but may live with careful nursing.

The T. A. A. people are busy today telling how it happened.

THEY FIND A CHAMPION.

The Anti-Lottery People Have One in J. K. Cullison.

J. K. Cullison, who was in Topeka yesterday has pledged himself to the Ministerial Alliance of Kansas City, to lead the fight for an anti-lottery bill at the coming session of the legislature.

Lawyer Bruno Hobbs, an anti-lottery man, is preparing the bill which the Ministerial Alliance is expected to endorse and which will be introduced by either Representative Cullison or State Senator Edwin Taylor, who made the fight alone two years ago.

Mr. Cullison is a candidate for speaker and, if elected, Senator Taylor will lead the anti-lottery fight again.
